

PROGRAM FÖR HÖSTEN 2018

“You are the World”

J. Krishnamurti förklarade ingen filosofi eller religion utan talade om det som berör vardagen, ett livsverk som ligger till grund för flera skolor.

J. Krishnamurti genomsyrades av det vetenskapliga förhållningssättet i sin renaste form. Under sextio år talade han till stora auditorier över hela världen med intention att göra människan - absolut fri.

AKTIVITETER - Hösten 2018

Föreningens ändamål är att vara en ideell mötesplats, denna säsong träffas vi vid fem tillfällen för videovisning samt dialog.

Videovisning på Bokhandeln Studio, Karlaplan 5B, följande Söndagar kl: 15.00 – 18.00

7 OKTOBER - Organizations Have Not Saved Man, Public Talk in Madras on 31 December 1978.

Krishnamurti emphasizes the importance of observing the outer world first since that is not different from what we call the inner world. To bring about a change in the world, man has relied on politics, science, and religion, but all of them have failed, as also organizations and institutions.

21 OKTOBER - A Dialogue on Death, Conversation with Pupul Jayakar, Brockwood Park, England, 7 June 1981.

What is ending? The mind cannot enter into a totally new dimension if there is a shadow of memory of anything. If the movement of thought ends, consciousness as we know it is not.

4 NOVEMBER - What can we do in this world? Public Talk at Brockwood Park, 1982.

If we are not committed to any ideology, what is our natural response to all the horror going on? As human beings living in this world, with our families, our children, what is our action, our responsibility? Is there anything ultimate, any existence without cause?

18 NOVEMBER - The action with no past or future? Public Talk at Madras, 28 December 1985.

Having lived on earth for millennia, why are we as we are? What is the future of all of us? During that evolution of experience, knowledge, in actual fact what has happened to each of us?
